Subject: Hilarious!-from a disgruntled Met fan....

>Gentlemen:
>A few final thoughts on our 2006 Mets before they pass from our >consciousness and I take my own life.
>1) Jose Reyes. Sure, he didn't really do anything in the playoffs, but >boy can he dance! Don't get me wrong, I like a leadoff hitter who's got >rhythm, but we got our asses kicked for about a week and ol' Jose is >trotting around the dugout like he's in a Bar Mitzvah congo line. What
>fuck is the matter with this kid? Does he realize that while he's >cha-cha-ing around Ramon Castro, I'm shitting my intestines out on my couch >worrying about Oliver Perez? He has dances for everything. He has a dance >for when someone gets an RBI, for when someone hits a home run, and very >likely, for when our 900 million dollar superstar strikes out with the >bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth inning in game 7. Which brings me >to...
>2) Carlos Beltran. Eesh. I don't even know if I'm ready to discuss >Carlos Beltran yet. I will just say this: I knew we were in trouble last >night when Fox did a player personality profile on Beltran in the 4th >inning and revealed that he has a purple '69 Camaro and two identical twin >poodles. I shit you not. I hope Jose Reyes has a dance ready for when >Beltran comes out of the closet. I'm fine with that by the way. If he's >gay, so be it. I'm good with a gay superstar. BUT HE HAS TO GET A HIT IN

>THE NINTH! I'd personally tickle his balls and whisper sweet nothings in >his ear if he'd even hit a bloop single. Twin poodles. Jesus. And >speaking of Jesus, what happened to our own personal messiah...
>3) David Wright. Remember him? White kid, face of the franchise, your >little sisters thought he was cute, your dads called him a "ballplayer."
>I'm not sure if he even played this series. I faintly recall someone >batting after Delgado and repeatedly hitting weak ground balls to the >shortstop, but that wasn't him, was it? Please tell me that wasn't him... >because I think my Mom's getting me a Wright jersey for Chanukah. And by >the way, yes, it just occurred to me that I'm eight years older than David

 >Wright and plan on wearing his jersey.
 >4) The Cardinals. Did we really lose to this team? Did Jeff Suppan >really kill us? Jeff Fucking Suppan! Adam Wainwright? Who the hell is >Adam Wainwright? I think I went to camp with Adam Wainwright. They have >literally one hitter on their entire team and the guy looks one he's one >steroid shot away from literally exploding as he runs to first base.
 Their >key hit came from Yadier Molina. Yadier Fucking Molina! He's not the >third best hitting catcher in the league, he's the THIRD BEST HITTING >CATCHER NAMED MOLINA IN THE LEAGUE! Kill me. Just kill me.
 >5) Our bullpen. God bless them all. Can't say anything bad about our >bullpen except Wagner (I can't write you guys about Wagner because I think >it would put me on some sort of FBI watch-list). Chad Bradford, I love >you. I love the way you throw like a female softball pitcher, I love the >way you were always ready to pitch anytime between the 3rd and 7th inning,

 >I love you. Same for you, Feliciano. Don't even know your first name >(Pedro, Paco, Steve? I think it's Steve). Regardless, great work.
 Love
 >your name, love your fastball. Guillermo Mota, fantastic. Aaron Heilman
 >... I know you gave up the freak home run to Yadier but not your fault, you >pitched nine hundred innings in the span of two weeks and frankly, probably >should have only went an inning last night. Plus, I think it's cool when >you glare into the catcher that you look like a child molester.
 Hopefully
 >you'll be closing for us next year instead of you-know-who. Douchebag >Wagner. Fuck you, I hate you.
 >6) Endy Chavez. I don't know what to say about you Endy. Someone will >inevitably sign you in the off season and make you their leadoff hitter and >you'll become Reyes without the dancing. For some reason, in our team of 9 >gazillion dollar superstars you were the only person I was comfortable with >seeing at the plate this entire series. And that catch! Oh Lord, that >catch. Down in Florida, you gave my father a coronary and I think he >actually died but I don't blame you for that. It was his time.

>7) Shawn Green and Jose Valentin. Useless, useless, useless. If they are >on the team next year I'm boycotting. First off all, Valentin looks like a >70's porn star and I'm pretty sure I saw Carlos Beltran's manjuice dripping >from his mustache when I watched game 6 in high definition. Second, didn't >Shawn Green used to hit 40 home runs? The man looks anorexic.
Seriously,
>we had Nicole Richie playing right field for us last night. I love that >he's Jewish, I really do, but I'd prefer that he be good. I'll take an >Aryan right fielder who can hit at this point. Give me a Taliban right >fielder for all I care. As long as he can hit the fucking ball out of

>infield.
>8) Next year. Well, obviously, I'm upset. Minaya's going to go crazy >this off-season, and I won't be surprised if we wind up with Manny Ramirez >in the outfield and Soriano at second base and every other city in baseball >hating us. Personally, I'd prefer to keep Endy out there, get one more >bat, and focus on pitching and getting Wright and Beltran to grow a sac and >Reyes to stop dancing and start hitting. Whatever. Fuck it. I spent

>last 6 months watching this fucking team. Yadier Molina. Jeff Suppan.

>Twin Poodles. Fuck.
>The best part of this all? A week ago I was telling everyone who would >listen this was my favorite team ever.

>Shit.
>At least the Yankees suck.
